

Asimbonanga – Zulu lyrics written by white South African musician Johnny Clegg in the 1980's. We have not seen him. We have not seen Mandela in the place where he is, where he is kept. Hey you! Hey you, and you as well! When will we arrive at our destination? Recorded by the Soweto Gospel Choir and others. In contemporary times, the song is interpreted as “There is yet much work to be done”.

Call:

Asimbonanga

Response:

Asimbonang uMandela thina

Laph' ekhona, laph' ehleli khona

Sithi hey wena!

Hey wena

Hey wena

Hey wena nawe

Siyofika nini la' siyakhona, la' siyakhona?
